10% ARTICLE, 90% DO NOT READ!!

Yesterday as I left the office I stopped for a while to visit a lady. She was one of the first to come in the office that day. She is always first to arrive and last to leave. Every year she pays a full rally fee to work seven or eight hours a day, fussing with faulty equipment and performing a service for us all. There are others, she is not alone. There is the man who parks others early in the rally, then unloads cargo, cooks pancakes and will be walking the grounds to make sure we left it as clean as we found it. These people are the upper 10% and about that percent of our workers fit in this elite group, they are examples but far from alone. You know who you are!

An ancient parable says: "They made me the keeper of the vineyards but my own vineyard have I not kept". This proverb has many meanings, but taken literally it speaks of a man who gave too much, who went beyond what is expected. YOU GOT TO LOVE THEM! But in this case I say, yes I see and appreciate what you are doing, and we all know your contribution, but please take a little time for yourself. You can only give what you have, save a little time to enjoy, to recharge, and come back full of energy, both you and I win this way. You paid just like the other 90% of us, let up just a little, and enjoy the 2015 rally and the area.

Joe

Dad

What we'd give if we could say
Hello, Dad, in the same old way
To hear your voice, see your smile
To sit with you and chat awhile...
So you who have your Father
Cherish him with care
For you'll never know
The heartache
Till you see his vacant chair..
