Newsletter for WBCCI Early Workers

Shannon Wylie, Editor #4199

Issue #5, June 22, 2015

For too many of us there are only three significant things that make up life. There is birth, then life and finally death. We are not conscious of being born, we die and we forget to live in between.

I believe for most Airstreamers this is not the case. You are here and you came to EXPLORE THE POSSIBILITIES. You are consciously aware of life and the question of how best to gain the most from the passage of time is a part of your make up. If you hadn't made the decision to life consciously, then you would not be here at all. I want to welcome you all and it is my sincere hope that this event is all you had hoped for. For me, it's just a little better because you came. Thank you.

Joe
